I look down upon the pavement
Through this piece of glass
Can you see me
For, she walks outside my window
In her back yard
Can you hear me
My name is Allister
And I'm here without no reason
Let my eye's guide you, through this windows pain
Let me show you the colors of your world now
Slowly it begins to rain
I am not the fool or the folly
For some things I can do
Do you know me
I'm the boy who just sees colors
Through this piece of glass
Can you see me
Look at me know I'm here without no reason
Could I ever be has cool as you
I'm just a lost soul, staring at the seasons
Your society's made me the fool, the fool
Look at me now, loving you for some reason
Can you see me up here in the middle of the night
Your world has locked me in this closet
Doing penance for my life, my life.
Oh Chandlis, come and look please
Through this piece of glass
Do you know me
Oh Chandlis, come and touch me
Through this windows pain, Do you love me
Look at me now, I'm here without no reason
You wave and you move right out of sight
And slowly, the colors fade away now
Only leaving black and white, black and white.
