yeah i looked into her face she was leaving so my future written read the lines the church bells will no longer be appealing darkness fall with the sun no longer shines

Chorus:

if you love her want you tell her she was everything among when you were her fellow if you love her won't you let her go where hope is smell around here anymore oh the news was brief and firmly ..and sorrow the freaks of love almost shrivels up and right each moment now was a version of tomorrow seen through the eyes one who can only cry

Chorus:

if you love her won't you tell her she was everything among when you were and if you love her won't you let her go where hope is

when did i get come you were only one
for god and son yesterday
we taste it love like never before my casket to the color of your choosing my face made up to always cast the smile this ..sick never hide the bruising my goodness you've been laughing all the while

Chorus:

she was everything among when you were her fellow
live where hope is all there is is hope
