On the road so long and lonely
Can't believe I'm heading home to stay
God, I miss my one and only
A little traveling music please

Seems we're always separating
Still she doesn't let me lose my way
Home is anywhere she's waiting
A little traveling music please

I may forget how much I care
But once I've left her laughter
Two or three days after I'm aware
How much I miss her there

This time I'll stay home forever
Hold her close and turn the world away
Even if it's not forever
If it'll keep me from unraveling
A little traveling music please

Two or three days after I'm aware
How much I miss her there

This time I'll stay home forever
Hold her close and turn the world away
Even if it's not forever
She's gonna keep me from unraveling
A little traveling music please

A little traveling music please
