Some people shoot for the stars
Dream upon dream
They long to go far

Chasing their rainbow so high
Wish upon wish
They'll reach for the sky

But I got one little dream
And baby, that's all I want
Girl it's up to you
You can make my dreams come true

I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always
I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always

I don't need cheers from the crowd
To make me feel big

To make me feel proud

Darlin' just a little touch of your hand
Is all that I need
To feel like a man

And I keep hoping each day
I won't dream my life away
Girl, you hold the key
To make my dream a reality

I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always
I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always

I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always
I just wanna be the one in your life
For ever, for always
