PUT A QUARTER IN THE JUKE BOX
WITH RONNIE MILSAP
WRITER BARRY MANILOW

Barry

She said she'd always love me She said she'd never leave me

Then I wake up this morning She's gone without a warning

Ronnie

I know what you've been through, pal My woman left me, too, pal

I'm drinking to what used to be Here's a toast the drink's on me

Both:

What this joint needs is some music Someone put a quarter in the jukebox

And we'll both forget about her Make the music louder Someone put a quarter in the jukebox And we'll sing our cares away

Tomorrow is another day

Barry

It feels just like a dream

We were such a winning team

Oh, I'm sure it's true that love is blind

Cause leaving never crossed my mind

Ronnie

Another round on me, pal

I feel the same you see, pal

It's hard to face this endless day

I've got to drink the hurt away

Both:

Hey this joint needs some more music

Someone put a quarter in the jukebox

And we'll both forget about her

Make the music louder

Someone put a quarter in the jukebox

And we'll sing our cares away

Tomorrow is another day

Barry

What'll I do with the nights now that she's gone

Ronnie

And what'll I do when the nights go on and on and Both:
Someone put a quarter in the jukebox
And we'll both forget about her
Make the music louder
Someone put a quarter in the jukebox
And we'll sing our cares away
Tomorrow is another day
Put a quarter in the jukebox
Both forget about her
Make the music louder
Someone put a quarter in the jukebox
And we'll sing our cares away
Tomorrow is another day
