Hey, there train wreck
Look in the mirror, could it be clearer end of the line
Way off the rails next door to nowhere
Land bird and low where the sun used to shine

Wake up train wreck, no navigator
Sooner or later all up too
Somewhere out there comin' on morning
Sun without warning
Day burning through

*Maybe I played too hard
Maybe I run too fast

Maybe I was their hero that don't last
Flame out train wreck
Hey, what's past is past

Come on train wreck
Get it together
Life goes on whether you done all you do
Back on the track
Starting to move now

Something to prove now
They say you're through

Repeat *
