"Where Does The Time Go?"

Oh, what a time
What a warm an wondrous time
So sweet a shinning moment
In the sun

Oh, what a time
Was there ever such a time
Then suddenly it's done
The moment passes

Where, where does the time go
Must we let it end
Where, where does the time go
Gone to soon my friend

And where, where go the echo's
Of our laughter ringing the air
Oh, wherever the time goes
I will see you there

Must we let it end

And where, where go the echo's
Of our laughter ringing the air
Oh, wherever the time goes
I will see you there
I will see you there
