There's no rule
You made that binds you to me
I know my way is free
There's been no vow
Yet here beside you now
Is where I want to be

Not for fear
That only here would I find
Love gets to shine on me
There's surely more
Yet where the light is yours
Is where I want to be

Knowing I'm where I want to be is the way I live
And nowadays I'm always blue
Truly this is the finest love I have to give
I ask the same of you

There I've seen doors
To new worlds open before
There's many more to see
But yours alone
Of all the worlds I've known
Is where I want to be
Where I want to be
It's where I want to be
Where I want to be
