Pale blue eyes
In search of flight
You do not know
How hard you will fall
How hard you will fall

Give one kiss
For these empty lips
Before you go
To your brokenness
To your brokenness

I have seen
All you're hiding
All that you've seen
All that you've seen
All that you've seen

Your cracked sky
It lets in rain
And all I've gained
Are craving palms
Are craving palms

Eyes can't see
Where you're at
It makes me sad
To know you are far
It makes me sad
To know you are far
To know you are far

I have seen
All you're hiding
All that you've seen
All that you've seen
All that you've seen
