There's lots of ways to live
Lots of ways to love
So many times I try
To find a reason why
I cannot feel you by my side

I know the fears you hide
They grow deeper everyday
Sometimes here in life
We go our separate ways
This is how we live
I can see the open road
Sometimes I need to go
But I cannot feel you by my side
Never say goodbye

That's how I know it's meant to be
It's a look that's in your eyes
That's how I know it's meant to be
I can see it in your eyes
Now I can fly
With you I choose to fly
With you by my side

There's lots of times to run
But is it ever left behind?
And though the wounds will mend
The scare will remind
With all your sacrifice
I failed to recognize
So I apologize
I just need to feel you by my side
So never say goodbye

That's how I know it's meant to be
It's a look that's in your eyes
That's how I know it's meant to be
I can see it in your eyes

Now I can fly
With you I choose to fly
Together we will fly

Forever we will fly

I know that you're always near me
There's never a moment with out you
I can fly away but I will find my way back to you
I will never say goodbye
I'll always feel you

Chorus
