You said I never recognized every time our thoughts collide
You said we are not meant to be. Don't you see me on my knees?
What if we took the time to try? Maybe I could turn the tide

If you won't then I will I swear I will
If you won't then I will I swear I will
I will
I will

Turn your head one last kiss goodbye. You said that I've got to try
Desperate eyes one man's suicide, you decide to hear me cry

If you won't then I will I swear I will
If you won't then I will I swear I will
I will
I will

For you I've tried. You can't deny
But still you don't even care why
Ask me no whys. I'll tell no lies
But then where would that get us

If you won't then I will I swear I will
If you won't then I will I swear I will
I will
I will
I will
I will
My will
