Now then
Where were we once again?
I feel we started at the end of it all
Shall we begin?

Here we are together
Together you and I are alone
Almost exactly the same
Except for everything you believe
Are you beyond the point of feeling
Or is someone pulling strings
Did I just hear you say
Tomorrow's headlines today

And thank you for helping yourself to me
I don't mind I don't mind no
And thank you for taking one for me
Least you tried
Am I alive?

Tell me a little white lie
Lie still maybe no one else will hear
The timeless moment of pain
Another suicide volunteer
Can you justify your reasons
Or will I just take the blame
Today you're in rare form
An instant classic is born

And thank you for helping yourself to me
I don't mind I don't mind no
And thank you for taking one for me
Least you tried
Am I alive?

The one thing that's hard to ignore
Is that I keep giving and you keep taking
The one thing that's hard to ignore
Is that I just can't give anymore

And thank you for helping yourself to me
I don't mind I don't mind no

And thank you for taking one for me
Least you tried
Am I alive?

Well here, there
And everywhere it's all around
And don't you notice that were up side down
