I've been living in this shell of mine
I am praying for some peace of mind (oh)
At times like these I just need someone to please
You can't deny it. You were looking at me

I've got the feelin' that something up with you
I've got this feelin' that you might want me too
I've got the feelin' that something up with you

Now I've retreated to the place that I hide
No one can stop me from the seat I ride all night
You had me watching all things that you do
You talk to him and I swear to god were through

I've got the feelin' that something up with you
I've got this feelin' that you might want me too
I've got the feelin' that something up with you
You've gotta want me
To take you by the hand
You've gotta want me
To make you understand
You've gotta want me
To take you by the hand
There's just one problem
You've got to want me too

I've got the feelin' that something up with you
I've got this feelin' that you might want me too
I've got the feelin' that something up with you
I've got this feelin' hmmm you want me to

You've got to want me
To take you by the hand
You've got to want me
To make you understand
You've gotta want me
To take you by the hand
You've gotta want me
To make you understand
Oooohhhh Yeeeeeeaaaaaaaah
