If I ever recover
If my soul can mend
Make it through to where I'm older
Find a shoulder, find a friend

I hope she don't remind me
Of anything to do with you
I left it all behind me
And I'm aching baby to be through with you

If I ever recover
If my soul can mend
Make it through to where I'm older
Find a shoulder, find a friend

I hope she don't remind me
Of anything to do with you
I left it all behind me
And I'm aching baby to be through with you
