Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Don't let the walls cave in on you

We can't evolve alone without you

Don't let the walls cave in on you

We can't evolve alone without you

Don't let the walls cave in on you

You get what you give that much is true

Don't let the walls cave in on you

You turned the world away from you

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

You have found yourself

Trapped in this incomprehensible maze

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Don't make it easy on yourself

Where's your head at?

Got to get, got to get

Got to get, got to get

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Where's your head at?

Where's your head at? Where's your head at?

Don't let the walls cave in on you

We can't evolve alone without you

Don't let the walls cave in on you
We can't evolve alone without you

Don't let the walls cave in on you
We can't evolve alone without you
Don't let the walls cave in on you
We can't evolve alone without you

Where's your head at?
Where's your head at?
We can't evolve alone without you
We can't evolve alone without you
We can't evolve alone without you
We can't evolve alone without you
