"Betrayal"

Step up, from the ground up
You said you'd help
Your ideals revealed
Faith in yourself
Finding, redefining what we need
Told us you would show us
How to succeed

And we believed
We believed in you
We believed in all your lies
And your ties and your promises

We try to comply duty bound
Degredation, communication
Breaking down
Conflict and no respect
We don't need this
Backbiting, infighting, is this your best?

And we believed
We believed in you
We believed in all your lies
And your ties and your promises

And we believed
We believed in you
We believed in all your lies
And your ties and your promises
