Jungle Night

The elephant was visiting a kangaroo the big guy asked the hopper are you coming too It's a full moon tonight you know what it means, come to the dance when you dig this scene Well I do well I do said the kangaroo why don't you ask all your other friends too It's a fabulous jungle night!
The elephant is boppin' with the kangaroo, the big guy said he'd ask the chimpanzee too The elephant dropped by at the chimpanzee tree, there was the gorilla with a lion on his knee He said to the panther go and tell all your friends, the elephant is boppin' with his trunk in his hands The tiger and the wildebeest and the baboon were told that there's a rockin' real soon

On this fabulous jungle night...

They said to the panther go and tell all your friends The elephant is boppin' with the trunk in his hands That night there was a jungle-party going on, women, booze and rocking monkey singing a song Too hot to handle and the rocking was fine, drinking coconut beer and banana wine
The wild wild party lasted more then a week and they all got sober after dippin' the creek After a fabulous jungle night!
The wild wild party lasted more then a week and they all got sober after splashing the creek
