

Battery "Fury"

Too scared to care
Enough to sacrifice yourself
Knowing things must be done
But choosing to ignore the truth
Turn your back
Shut it out - Apathy
Won't put yourself on the line
On the line

Too scared to care
You think this world revolves around you
Knowing things must be done
But living life only for you

This fury is raging me
I'd make an effort for you and I'm trying
But would you make it for me? I care
Feelings so strong I can't be held back
Tell me why you hold yourself back
