"I Won't Fall"

Destroyed the feelings that I have inside
You walked all over me after all I tried
I took a slap in the face and I can never be the same
I've fallen once before and now I'll never fall again
You call my name and expect me to come running back
I've fallen once - once into your trap
I want to trust you but I'm afraid
Last time I trusted you I was betrayed

And I won't fall again

Still burning from my anger
Still stumbling on my pain
You took what I held highest in life
And turned into a game

I won't fall again
