"Never Forget"

Angry, I was so angry, I was so scared.
I was never there,
Always turning my back on the people who cared.
So believe me when I tell you
I know I was wrong, I never let you near
Now lonely and crying, I hold your memory dear.

Pls understand
I'm sry, my friend, I am.

But when you're lying the gutter, it's hard to look at the stars.
We're all so busy feeling down and out,
It's easy to forget who your friends are.
The people who care, the people who will listen,
We should never take for granted the love that they are giving.

Selfish, I was so selfish, though I was I pain.
It seems so lame
That I could just turn my back and walk away.
So believe me when I tell you
Though things will never be the same,
I will always love you in my own special way.

[Ref.]

I'm sry. I will never take for granted the love that you're giving.
