"The Factory"

What am I doin' wasting my time, playing music, not taking part in society's plan?
It must be hard to understand why all I want to do
Is hang out with my friend.

Because they are there when I need them,
But when I need them most.

In sports and school I never found a home
The only place I found acceptance was going to shows
And the story goes on...
Where we dance all night to our favorite song

[Ref.]

We can stand by everything that we believe.
We don't need their model to succeed.
We can find our strength through the ones we love,
Throughout our lives as we move along.

YOU CAN'T TOUCH ME
