I remember those summer nights lyin' down an old back road

Turnin' off the lights when we got to where we go Starin' at the stars lyin' in the bed of that old Ford

I remember talkin' about forever and believin' it was true

Remember you lovin' me and me lovin' you
I remember lots of things that I don't wanna remember anymore

That song on the radio
First time you took my breath away
First time you held me close
Remember us, just like it was before
But I don't wanna remember anymore

I remember fallin' harder, harder than I ever fell
And I remember heaven, oh and I remember hell Even you say goodbye, parkin' lot of that small town grocery store

Remember days draggin' on, years flyin' by How tough it was just tryin' to move on with my life
I remember lots of things that I don't wanna remember
anymore

That song on the radio
First time you took my breath away
First time you held me close
Remember us, just like it was before
But I don't wanna remember anymore

It's not like I sit around thinking 'bout you all the time
Oh but every now and then
I remember, I remember

That song on the radio
First time you took my breath away
First time you held me close
Remember us, just like it was before

But I don't wanna remember,
No I don't wanna remember
No I don't wanna remember anymore
