You know better than I
What is strengthened, what dissolves
You know better than I
What your point of view involves

You know better than I
What can make you satisfied
You know better than I
What you really feel inside

You know better than I
What your mirror image craves
You know better than I
What your self-opinion waives

I know better than you
What refusal has brought on
I know better than you
Sacrifice I've undergone
So this is all you can provide
Just a little bit of thought, little bit of time
Never mind
For me to bear this just won't do
Just a little bit of care, little bit of love
Little bit of you
Never mind

You know better than I
Your order of priority
You know better than I
What you would forgo for me

I know better than you
My intention of my deed
I know better than you
What's undue and what I need
