yes I'll walk with the other one he is my favorite one he's got it all it's a short-term deal I know but I don't care when it ends I shall have burnt both ends it's over all the same in spirit in flesh what once belonged to me I give to thee stranger saviour angel friend lover opponent rolemodel friend friend friend friend friend the end

I poured your cup and you drank it up I walked you to the gate fare was on me no one gets off this ride it is for life you just don't quit that's all there is on your way to bliss through rain and through snow when I close the book it belongs to you

friend friend friend friend the end
