Gone, beaten beyond recognition I'm not the same one you once listened to as one of the few with a point of view

Glad to see you!
Do I know you?
My memory's a blank
locked up in the bank

Stale, stuck in old ways, I may have betrayed all my righteous claims
Gone from where I came from, the place I was born. A Little alone

Glad to see you!
Do I know you?
"Remember when, remember them, do you remember them?"
I can't remember them. I have no memory of anything
