I came because someone had to
Come see about you
And I'll keep my jacket on
Sharing the same sense of leaving
Any second now

And it's raining isn't it perfect
And isn't it always this time of year
Suits your long trapped stare

Something you really wanted to keep
Safe from all the average deceit
Want to do something that matters
Build a silence someone could inhabit

And it's raining isn't it perfect
And isn't it always this time of year
Suits your long trapped stare

And our enemies run things
From behind the scenes always
Takes a classic paranoid
To avoid conspiracies these days

And it's raining and there's no haven
For our DJ, our nights of rain
So play it warm, play it slow
Over and over 'til the pain is gone
Over and over 'til the pain is gone
Over and over 'til the pain is gone
