"Summer Dies"

No problems and no troubles I'm under water
Trying to salvage my bicycle
Before it gets too cold,
Because I've been told

Summer dies I've heard that
Summer dies tonight and I will be there
The body's still warm, I'm inside it
And I am invited because it goes for all

Under street lamps with their backs to the evening
I hear them laugh and talk I pass by
I am on asphalt and it's not my fault

That summer dies and I know this Summer dies tonight I'll be there
Summer dies I'm walking through now
The body's still warm but summer dies that's all
