I get up; I get dressed,
to lie down in darkness
after a day of rest

Morning opens up
I'm out on the balcony,
I eavesdrop and feel free

You
You who swam and also ran,
you that I can stand,
when I am with you

I get up; I get dressed,
after a day of rest

When I am with you;
everything weighs ten times less,
fluent in all I do

Please
Please find it in your heart, because what set us apart is what will set us free
