(We are the Templars of Hip Hop!)
No one Can Surpass Us
Every day Contributing
Helping to Wake the Masses
(The Templars of Hip Hop!)
The Realest in the Fucking Game
We Don't give a Shit about jewelry
Money or the Fame
(The Templars of Hip Hop!)
We a Force that can't be Reckoned with
We do this for the Kulture The Future Hiphoppas
wrecking It
(The Templars of Hip Hop!)
The other Cliques is Obsolete
You Down With Us?
If Not then Crushing ya Underneath our Feet

(Verse 1)
Yo (Pause) yo,
I'm Like the First Comet that Splashed
And seeded up the Ocean
I'm the Catalyst
The Grease in the Gears of a Locomotive
The Embodiment of Masterful Form
I was born for Lyricism
Divisionism with No Religion so STOP watching
Television
The Prodigious and Ponderous Packing Spaces
Cover all the Bases
As the Circumstances alter all the Cases
It's raining red from the Sky
As I Try to Resupply
An Eye for an Eye
On the Fly
As the Victims Hug and Cry
Every tracks a Lesson to Learn from my Rhyme Pattern
I will shatter ya
Like Rocks that Collide and surround Saturn
This is Mastery
A window a Glance as I look to Future Times
I Know

Cuz of KRS One
Like the Singer in SUBLIME (See Video:

(Verse 2)
I'm in my Prime like Optimus
Botulance cause your Flatulence
We see yall Faking the Funk with your Fake as Fuck
Management
Savages Nouns and Adjectives
Hazardous off your Label Mates
We raised the Stakes
Your team is Second Rate
So get that Fuckin Straight
Everything you want to Be
But Never will because You can't
We Grassroots
And Soon all the Seeds that we Sewn will Grow to Plants
To Think
It all started with Cindy and Kool Herc
It was the ones who came Before us
Who Laid down the Ground Work
I Been Baptized
In Infinite Power that make me Limitless
The Carboniferous, Carnivorous, Abolitionist
A Wordsmith with words Riffing
In Jeopardy Like Merv Griffin
Your all an Act Like the Cast
That they Cast for Dunder Mifflin
I'll say it Again
I will do this to my Dying Breath
Display of my Skills to the People
Like Watching Iron Chef
I am Def and Dope

But I aint Handicap or High
Hot as July
And the Ass up on Anna the Russian Spy
So say Goodbye to the Half Emcees
So Mediocre
I'll Smack you 45 Shades
Like I Rhymed at Tony Toca's
Never Lose the Focus you Hopeless
Them dudes is Eternally Bogus
We're Like Folgers
Cus we Wake em
Train em Into Soldiers
This is Over
Just Know that we Came to Set the Bar
The Place that we Set it is
Farther Beyond the Nearest Star
We'll go Down in History
Mystery School Calligraphy
A New way of Learning
From Teachers that's Speaking Rhythmically
