Something on the windowsill caught her eye and held her still
The cars pass by outside Nowhere left to hide

Picture this now crystal clear (Something on the windowsill) Nothing left to hold her here (Caught her eye and held her still)
And creeping up meanwhile (Something on the windowsill)
Traces of a smile (Caught her eye and held her still) Something on the windowsill caught her eye and held
her still
The cars pass by outside (Something on the windowsill)
If I could fly Open wide to see if I could fly (Something on the windowsill)

Something on the windowsill
Something on the windowsill
