"In Love With You Thing"

I know I'm to shy
I know you can't read my mind
This situation has got the making
For some very serious heartbreaking

Cos you're going away, you're going away, you're going away
You're going way can't you see
I got this powerful in love with you thing

My memory is bleeding
From how I spent this year
Opportunity subdued my fingers
Now I never met you and I never will

Cos you're going away oh you're going away oh no
you're going way can't you see
I got this powerful in love with you thing

No matter you you're with You show unhappiness
If I could touch those parted lips
Your swinging little lips just gotta be kissed

Cos you're going away oh you're going away oh no
you're going way can't you see
I got this powerful in love with you thing
