My friends asks me how I look so down
How come they haven't seen me around town

Cause I let him get to me but you don't let me get to him

I let him get to me, he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me, he don't let me get to him

I see him walking around so cool
And I feel like such a fool

Cause I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him

I let him get to me he don't let me get to him

I think about how I feel this way
I think about it most every day
I try to change the way I feel about you
But when I try I see that I'm not being true

Cause I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me but he don't let me get to him
I let him get to me he don't let me get to him
