His tires start spinning, rock and roll starts winning
We rise to the top, we're the cream of the crop
We make with the hair cuts straight outta the past
We blast first, we blast last
Teenage caveman rock with skin and bone
It's the cry of the wild, we cry alone
We cry alone, we cry alone
We cry alone, we cry alone
Got a strand of barbed wire stwied around my throat
Teenage caveman blind and without any hope Let's get primitive right now, down with the rocks and the dirt
Let's bang our heads girl, trade spit 'til it hurts
Teenage caveman rock with skin and bone
It's the cry of the wild, we cry alone
We cry alone, we cry alone
Woke to the sound of an angel, rolling close to the door
I can hear the flowers bloom the dust and something roar
Teenage caveman rock with skin and bone
It's the cry of the wild, we cry alone
We cry alone, we cry alone
