A friend says that your love won't mean a lot And you know that your love is all you've got At times things are so fine and at times they're not But when she says she loves you, that means a lot

A friend says that a love is never true And you know that this don't apply on you A touch can mean so much when it's all you've got When she says she loves you that means a lot

Love can be deep inside, love can be suicide

Can't you see you can't hide what you feel when it's real

A friend says that your love won't mean a lot And you know that your love is all you've got A touch can mean so much when it's all you've got When she says she loves you that means a lot

Can't you see, yeah Can't you see, yeah
