Lets not walk away
Even though things couldn't be more wrong today
But still we stay the same
Will we ever activate our faith and pray

You can't fake it
Now your faded
Night has turned to dead

So tell me are you watching
Can you see us changing
And that's all I know
Where did everyone go
I cannot stop this failing
So redefine my worries
And I need you more

I awoke to find
Reflected absence underneath my eyes
Cause I've been wasting all my time
Waiting for return
Waiting for the Son of life to come
To light up all the skies to burn

Need you more... woahh
I want you more, I know
Need you more... woahh
I want you more, I know
