On an ocean there's a candle
So blackened by the waves
I've done nothing but ignored her
Turning back and I ran away
This girl I've never met her
She is one I do not know
Understand me I can feel her
I feel her spirit crying out for more

And she cries
I need you here
I need you now
Come close to me
Come close to me... woahh

Would you let me know you're here
Let me feel you near
Let me know your love
Forever changing love

Where's this girl out on the water?
This hurting heart out on the seas
I tell you nothing makes her different
Don't ya know
That were all candles burning up

And we cry
I need you here
I need you now
Come close to me
Come close to me... whoahh
