These kids are running in and out
Inside a city wearing out
Tired faces seeking every singel trend that passes by Don't pass me by there is no one left alive

I'm hanging on

You're living and I can feel the heat
Crying hard for you to cling so close to me
Wow God I need
Forgiving for You to set me free
Through a winter of despair that lies assault
On this cold hurting heart

It's Friday night and I got no one here who even cares about
What it is I'm feeling will I shut the quiet out
Always the same never ever letting go Desperation's setting in

Do you believe that we can use a little help?
The heat is hot and I need out
I'm hopeless
Do you believe that we are running for survival?
