Candy apple smile, a gleam in you eye
Can we take a piece of that pie?
Granduer is knocking at your door,
So let's all take a ride.
Burn a bridge or two,
When we all get there
Who said life was fair?
Dressed up with nowhere to go.

Flying high, as high can be
I abide in you, and you abide in me.
Can't nothing stop us now
Light your flame, burn this town.

Burn a bridge or two,
When we all get there
Who said life was fair?
Dressed up with nowhere to go
