From the night until day From the desert to the bay I keep on hearing your words replay That everything's gonna be okay And I don't wanna just meet halfway And I refuse to obey

I don't care What they say I don't care I still love you In every way

Egyptian eyes Everyday my feelings for you keep intensifying Electrify me Every time you touch my skin I know I'm sanctified

From the sand to the sea

From the sky to mercury I keep on feeling your voice deep in me I wish I could give them my eyes to see It's not for them to decide how to be Come, set me free

I don't care What they say I don't care I still love you In every way

Egyptian eyes Everyday my feelings for you keep intensifying Electrify me Every time you touch my skin I know I'm sanctified
