I just started to see the light of day
Some people say one thing but act the other way
Sooner or later they give themselves away
And I just started to see the light of day

I just started hating some people today
Talking trash behind your back all day
Saying things that a garbage man would not say
And I just started hating some people today

I just started wanting to kill someone
And I don't need a nunchuck or a gun
Cause one look at my eye and you will run
And I just wanted, wanted to kill someone

I just started wanting to see you dead
At least one half of the double life you lead
And I may be joking, you'll be choking instead
And I just started wanting to see you dead

I just started wanting to punch your face
You might wanna wear a helmet just in case
What was once your face is gonna be replaced
And I just started wanting to punch your face

I just started hating some people today
Rick and Thor and Randy better run away (Randy)
Some others I don't even think I have to name
Cause I just started seeing the light of day

I hate you Randy
I just want to?
I just want to?
I hate you Randy

Oh yeah
I'm gonna kill you
Oh yeah
I'm gonna kill you Randy
Skiddly diddly wow
I'm gonna watch you die

You're so dead
