Changed your mind...
You don't call me love, like you used to anymore,
You
Seems like you've gone away, gone away
Seems like you've changed your Mind, changed your mind
You don't look right on, into my eyes when we talk,
You
Seem like you drift away, float away, you know
You can't change, anything
In our yesterday
It's true your love, has gone missing, it washed away
You
Don't dream big dreams, of peace love and all good things, you
Seem like you
Shrink away, fade away
All this talk of wanting to stay in Really drifting is
All you've ever been Floating, fading, away
