1)I admit it , I?m really a dreamerAnd I?m reachin? for a star too high up there for hangin? onAnd baby , I believe in ?for all timeAnd the miracle of your love and minelt?s a lonely feelin? when the meaning?s gone2)I? m confessin? , I don?t wanna let you goAnd I?m burnin? for the loveThat you don?t show me anymoreAnd all of the dreams that we whispered aboutThey went into my heart and they never came outAnd a love like this can die if we don?t let it growWind and fire and fallin? rain?ll be comin? throughThere ain?t nothin? gonna keep me from youMy love (no nothing) ,nothin? gonna keep me from you , my love?ll find anyplace where you may hidel?ll be by your sideThere ain?t nothin? gonna keep me from youMy love (no, nothin?) ,nothin? gonna keep me from you,my love?ll find youHeaven and earth I will move for you ,darlin?Whatever it takes to be where you areWith a stronger love , let me flow through you , babyYou ain?t got the power for breakin? my heartAnd forever you?ll be my paradiseAnd I?m reachin? for a dream when you don?t even want me toAnd baby , I believe you need me thereFor the miracle of love we shareAnd tomorrow I will still be followin? youRepeat 3) and fade out
