

Bedtime For Charlie "My Lovely Enemy"

Visit "My Lovely Enemy" on MotoLyrics.com

Perspire onto the stone I could not throw
And somewhere far away I'm sure you know
I never could believe that some catastrophe
Could bring my cul de sac down to the floor

System brake-down with no flashing light or sound
I'm sure you always knew the truth
"I never seemed to care about it"
I thought about the last excuse.
"You didn't give a shit"

And now we're clattering to get along
Do you remember when we used to carry on?
Another memory. Another song to sing
"You where my everything". You where my everything

The picture's never been so clear
I know it's been a while and this is all my fault.
Flattered by it all.
Take the blame.
Bury the hatchet of shame.

So here we are again back to the start.
"A million miles away but still close to my heart"
You are my enemy. My lovely enemy.
But somehow I still hope you're happy now.

Visit Bedtime For Charlie page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.