There not anything I would not do to ease your troubled mind

Where you are, there is a different feeling

I wake up, I'm on the ceiling, opens up your eyes

What a shape, someone you can't forget for any time

Oh, let me show you mine immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately after dark

There is no limit that I would not go if I could lie beside

Where you are, there is a different one out there

Love in the jungle can be hard to realize

What a shape, someone you can't forget for any time

Oh, let me show you mine immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately after dark

There is not anything I would not do to ease your troubled mind

Where you are, there is a different feeling

I wake up, I'm on the ceiling, opens up your eyes

What a shape, someone you can't forget for any time

Oh, let me show you mine immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low

I wanna be there, I wanna be there

We leave immediately after dark

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low
I wanna be there, I wanna be there
We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low
I wanna be there, I wanna be there
We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low
I wanna be there, I wanna be there
We leave immediately

After dark where the lights start fading sweet and low
I wanna be there, I wanna be there
