Hindsight, don't make it right, she givin' me trouble
enough

And she's a ball of light

I'm in the tunnel of love with the American dream

And I'm born too soon

A little good luck, never stuck

She got me climbing the walls, got me hard as a rock

Within a city of sin, she got a city block

And she was barkin' at the moon

She likes to show

So many sides to her and I'd be the one to know

When am I gonna go to your dimension?

When am I gonna go to where you are?

When am I gonna go to your dimension?

Dimensions of each other keep us goin' strong

Black knight take a bite, she can double it up

And she's a way of life

Whether dead or alive, she got a fix on me

And I was dancin' in the fire

A little white steam, never seen in every muscle and bone

She was a love machine

She could wrestle me down and get a taste of me

In her web of desire

She changed my world

How can the body know whether it's touchin' me or her?

When am I gonna go to your dimension?

When am I gonna go to where?

When am I gonna go to where you are?

When am I gonna go to your dimension?

Dimensions of each other keep us goin' strong

When am I gonna go to your dimension?

When am I gonna go to where?

When am I gonna go to where you are?
When am I gonna go to your dimension?
Dimensions of each other keep us goin' strong

When am I gonna go to your dimension?
When am I gonna go to where
When am I gonna go to where you are?
When am I gonna go to your dimension?
Dimensions of each other keep us goin' strong

When am I gonna go to your dimension?
When am I gonna go to where?
When am I gonna go to where you are?
When am I gonna go to your dimension?
Dimensions of each other keep us goin' strong
