It's the way that she walks
It's the way that she moves
You can lose your mind
Makes you so wet
She can make you forget
It's a pantomime

Analyze, fantasize
Anything your heart can tell you
Agony , ecstasy
Ooh, you got lucky

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Does it burn so deep
That you just don't sleep?

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Ah no, all right
Ooh, you lucky

It can make you feel good
It can make you feel fine
It's a borderline
It's the way that she runs
All her fingers and thumbs
Up and down your spine

At a price, paradise
Girl has got a lot to sell you
Hard lies, paralyze
Ooh, you got lucky

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Does it burn so deep
That you just don't sleep?

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Oh no , Alright

Ooh, you got lucky

Oh babe , does it bother you
When she's calling out my name in the night
She's a part of me
And I wanna go
But I can't give in
Not without a fight

Agony, ecstasy
Ooh, you got love

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Does it burn so deep
That you just can't sleep?

Do you love her?
Do you love her?
Oh no, all right
Ooh, you got lucky

Oh no babe, alright
Ooh, you got lucky
Do you love her?
Do you love her?

Ooh, you got lucky
Ooh, baby, alright
