Please believe me , I will never be untrue
And don't believe the jealous lies they told to you
Oh no , don't go , don't make this poor boy cry
I'll be true , I beg of you , don't say goodbye
Now don't you know I love you more than I can say
And it would mean my life if you should run away
Oh no , don't go , don't make this poor boy cry
I'll be true , I beg of you , don't say goodbye
You just won't listen to my pleas
You want me beggin' on my knees
So sit right down and listen while I beg , you see I'll never be untrue , so please believe in me
Oh no , don't go , don't make this poor boy cry
I'll be true , I beg of you , don't say goodbye
I'll be true , I beg of you , don't say goodbye
