I cant take all the blame now can I?
It takes more than one to lose such a fine line that lies between what holds together, watching the night, touching time woa..... and Im finding out the hard way its gonna take some tears,
a little bit of heartache,
Were like islands in the stream watching all our dreams start to fade, fading away,

A moment gone is gone forever, Its like water through your hands and you spin the wheel of misfortune, Watching it turn, you live and learn ohhh and Im finding out the hard way its gonna take some tears
a little bit of heartache, Were like islands in the stream watching all our dreams start to fade, fading away,

I keep reaching out, come up empty handed, Did I let you down or did I leave you stranded.
and Im finding out the hard way its gonna take some
tears
a little bit of heartache, Were like islands in the stream, watching all our dreams start to fade,

Oh.. and Im finding out the hard way, its gonna take
some tears,
a little bit of heartache,
Were like islands in the stream
watching all our dreams start to fade, fading away,
start to fade, fading away,
start to fade, fading away,
fade away.
