He may take you to shows ev'ry night
Fill your head with promise and music delight
And shower you with kisses of sweet ecstasy
But he'll never need you

He may fly you for weekends away
Get your kicks in Paris and drive to Calais
Life is so romantic , you're feeling alive
He'll only leave you

Living so exciting with your love affair
Your heart has made you blind to me
I'm sorry but I'm wondering
Please answer me

Can he love you like I love you
Can he take you through the night
Will he get you through the heartaches
And tomorrow hold you tight
You may still survive the storm but
He can't love you baby , he don't love you baby,
Like I do

Down the Champs-Elysee for some French cuisine
You're lookin' like a model from some magazine
And down to Monte Carlo for champagne on ice
Yes, it's so inviting

Your head is spinning , you're floating on air
Your heart is beating but you're not aware
The things that he told you were only a lie
And he'll only hurt you

Living so exciting with your love affair
Your heart has made you blind to me
I'm sorry but I'm wondering
Please answer me

Can he love you like I love you
Can he take you through the night
Will he get you through the heartaches

And tomorrow hold you tight
You may still survive the storm but
He can't love you baby , he don't love you baby
Like I do

Can he know just what you're thinkin'
When you don't have words to say
You may never understand that
He can't love you baby

Can he love you like I love you
Can he take your heart away
Will he get you through the heartaches-
