He steals hearts and he steals my kisses
He stole away my love
He steals my thoughts
And now it seems
He stole into my dreams
Cos he's a thief , oh
He's a thief
He's a thief
He's got me ensnared in his clutches
His love does not seem real
He's got me there
, in solitaire
His love is made of steel
But he's a thief ,
oh yeah
He's a thief , oh
He's a thief
I locked my heart
and threw away the key
But he's knocked once and
'open sesame 'He steals hearts and he steals my kisses
He stole away my love
He steals my thoughts
And
now it seems
He stole into my dreams
But he's a thief
Oh, he's a thief
He's a thief (fadeout)
